

luke the dragon rider

Once upon a time there was a kid named Luke he was very hungry. So he set off to the woods. Then he found a bear. He grabbed his knife and stabbed the bear. He ran out of the Cursed woods. Then a giant came and destroyed the woods. So he went back to the village.

At the village there was lots of food so he took three whole steaks and five apples. So he went back to the giant. But then he found a dragon. So he got on the dragon and said I'll name you Spark. Then he heard rustling.

Then he heard a voice. "Ah, out of those bushes" said a man.

"Hey, aren't you King William Robertson?" said Luke with a smile.

Then that man said "yes yes I am."

"Um daddy daddy" said princess Jade.

"Not now!" said King William with an angry face.

"Alright I think I'll be leaving" said Luke.
