

Level 3 -- Vocabulary – Day 70

Play charades. Choose a word and act it out. Everyone who is playing should be able to see this list to choose words and to help them guess.

vigorous -- strong and active imposing -- grand and impressive in appearance loiter -- to dawdle over your work or to hang around some place without any purpose enmity – hatred

luscious -- highly pleasing to the senses reproach – scold

indignant -- feeling upset over something that's not right retort -- to answer back in an angry way intimidate -- to fill someone with fear atrocious -- shockingly bad vivacity – liveliness

fret -- to worry

pungent -- something with a really strong taste or smell earnest -- serious about what you mean or what you are doing piteous -- used to describe something that you feel sorry for console -- to comfort evade -- to avoid obtrusive -- butting in, intruding on another's space contempt -- a feeling of despising toward people who are dishonorable or beneath you indignation -- righteous anger, feeling upset by something that is unjust or not right