

Day 52: Subject and Predicate

Underline the complete subject and circle the complete predicate.

The hall closet houses the mop, broom, and vacuum.

The never-ending movie rolled on and on.

My mom and dad have been married twenty-five years.

The bright red sock left balls of fuzz on the carpet.

The three girls were very chatty.

The lamp's light burned brightly in the otherwise dark room.

Write in the blank whether the underlined portion of the sentence is the complete subject (CS), complete predicate (CP), simple subject (SS), or simple predicate (SP).

The boy's many chores awaited. _____

The television set blared loudly. _____

Three dogs chased the ball down the road. _____

The blustery wind blew the curtains to and fro. _____

Her sympathetic look warmed my heart. _____

I am so very hungry. _____

The toddlers' giggles were heard for miles. _____

Day 52: Subject and Predicate

Underline the complete subject and circle the complete predicate.

The hall closet houses the mop, broom, and vacuum.

The never-ending movie rolled on and on.

My mom and dad have been married twenty-five years.

The bright red sock left balls of fuzz on the carpet.

The three girls were very chatty.

The lamp's light burned brightly in the otherwise dark room.

Write in the blank whether the underlined portion of the sentence is the complete subject (CS), complete predicate (CP), simple subject (SS), or simple predicate (SP).

The boy's many chores awaited. CS

The television set blared loudly. CP

Three dogs chased the ball down the road. SP

The blustery wind blew the curtains to and fro. SS

Her sympathetic look warmed my heart. SS

I am so very hungry. CS

The toddlers' giggles were heard for miles. CP