

Each of these sentences has too many adverbs. Choose one adverb and cross the others out so the sentence is more readable.

Our big family frequently runs out of milk often.

They boisterously ran around the room loudly.

We occasionally usually go to the park normally.

The girls were overly, amazingly, extremely excited it was Christmas.

Please quickly come here immediately!

We will soon be going shortly.

She quietly whispered to her sister softly.

Write your own adverb in the blank, using the words in parentheses to guide you as to what type of adverb to use.

The class sat _____ as they waited for the teacher. (how)

I left my book _____ by the table. (where)

We _____ go to church on Sundays. (when)

Sheila recites multiplication facts _____. (how)

I _____ enjoy the symphony. (how)

I'm sure it's _____, we just need to look. (where)

_____, we will go to the zoo. (when)

Each of these sentences has too many adverbs. Choose one adverb and cross the others out so the sentence is more readable. (Answers will vary. Of the underlined choices, all should be crossed out but one in each sentence.)

Our big family frequently runs out of milk often.

They boisterously ran around the room loudly.

We occasionally usually go to the park normally.

The girls were overly, amazingly, extremely excited it was Christmas.

Please quickly come here immediately!

We will soon be going shortly.

She quietly whispered to her sister softly.

Write your own adverb in the blank, using the words in parentheses to guide you as to what type of adverb to use. (Answers will vary. Here are suggestions.)

The class sat impatiently as they waited for the teacher. (how)

I left my book there by the table. (where)

We always go to church on Sundays. (when)

Sheila recites multiplication facts impressively. (how)

I thoroughly enjoy the symphony. (how)

I'm sure it's somewhere, we just need to look. (where)

Tomorrow, we will go to the zoo. (when)