

Use this page to help you brainstorm your compare and contrast writing assignment. You are comparing/contrasting the last two novels you've read. Today, fill out the way in which the two novels are different. You might look at your list for how they are the same and ask yourself when they stop being the same.

Contrast: the way the books are different