

What Did You Learn?

Answer the following questions about the chapter you read. Fill in the bubble next to the correct answer.

What is the largest organ in your body?

- muscles
- skin
- heart

How much of your body weight is made up of muscle?

- not quite one quarter
- almost all
- nearly half

Muscles cannot _____, they can only _____.

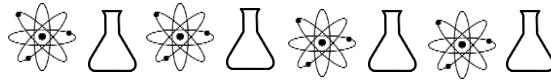

- push/pull
- pull/push
- lift/drop

By what are muscles attached to bones?

- ligaments
- tendons
- organs

Which of these is the job of your bones?

- help you move
- give you your shape
- protect your organs
- all of these

What Did You Learn?

Fill in the blank with the word that best fits.

| | | | |
|--------|-----------|---------|----------|
| bones | cartilage | cells | contract |
| dermis | ligaments | muscles | organs |
| skin | tendons | | |

parts of the body with special jobs _____ protects you from diseases _____

building blocks _____

your body has over 600 _____

your body starts with over 300 _____

to shorten _____

connect muscles to bones _____

connect bones to bones _____

cushion between bones _____

new sheets of skin cells inside _____