

Political Cartoons

Look closely at this cartoon.

Who is represented by the eagle?

Who is represented by the bear?

What is creating the chasm between them?

What does this cartoon show about the relationship between former allies?

Here is another Dr. Seuss political cartoon. You may remember seeing a cartoon by him about how America didn't want to get involved in WWII. Look at this Cold War cartoon.

Who is represented by the man in the first bed?

Who is in the second bed?

What is meant by "the gap?"

What is meant by the caption under the cartoon?

What is it that the man is happy he won't catch?

What is the point of the cartoon? _____

