

Describing the Setting

Think about your book again. Write description words about where the main character lives or where the story takes place. Fill in the boxes below with words that tell what you would see, feel, hear, smell, and taste if you were where the story takes place.

Looks like	Sounds like	Smells like

Tastes like	Feels like	Makes me feel