The only thing Bristol had in mind that morning when she woke was going sledding. She rushed to do her morning chores – washing dishes, picking up her room, cleaning off the table, and starting laundry. She made quick work of all her jobs before begging her mother to go sledding.

Her mother was thrilled to see Bristol had finished all her chores without having to be told. She told her to get ready to sled. Bristol put on her snow pants, boots, coat, gloves, and hat. She grabbed her orange sled, and the two of them walked hand in hand towards the hill, both happy for the beautiful day ahead of them.
