

Writing

Write a postcard. Where are you writing from? Home? The moon? Somewhere else?

A large rectangular box representing a postcard template. In the top right corner, there is a shaded square representing a postage stamp. A vertical line runs down the right side of the box, and four horizontal lines are positioned to the right of this vertical line, providing space for writing the message.