

Comparative or Superlative

For each sentence, fill in the comparative (comparing two things) or superlative (highest or lowest rank among a series of things) form of the adjective in the blank. The last one is tricky. Can you figure it out?

My dad is (strong) than yours. _____

Your sister is the (happy) little girl. _____

Jeff is (hungry) than James. _____

Canada is (peaceful) than Syria. _____

Her feet are the (small) I've seen. _____

My room is (clean) than yours. _____

That's the (big) snowball ever. _____

The last clown was the (silly). _____

Her hair is the (beautiful) of all. _____

The earth is (small) than Jupiter. _____

The swings are (fun) than the slide. _____

Rhode Island is the (small) state. _____

Her score was the (good) all year. _____