

Simple, Compound, and Complex Sentences

Make compound sentences using and, but, or or. Use each conjunction once to combine the given sentences with another sentence that you create.

The dress is pretty. _____

The dog is muddy. _____

Should I eat this cold soup? _____

Make complex sentences by adding each of when, if, because to make these sentences longer by adding a clause, a group of words with a subject and verb.

The phone rang, but we didn't hear it. _____

I like lettuce, and I like tomatoes, too. _____

We can watch a movie. _____
