

Final Project

Today you will learn about revising your play.

Ask yourself the following questions:

In the beginning of the play:

- Did I talk about the setting? Did I tell the reader where and when the story takes place?
- Did I show the main problem of the play? Will a reader understand what the problem was?

In the middle of the play:

- Did some of my characters try to solve the main problem? What happened when they tried? Was it clear?

How would I describe the end of my play? Circle a choice:

happy funny sad surprising something else: _____

After you ask yourself these questions, perform these proofreading steps:

- Check that each word is spelled correctly. Look it up if you're not sure.
- Check that each sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with proper punctuation.
- Don't be afraid to ask for help!

If you want to make any changes to your story, do it during the revision process. Think of a change that might make your story more exciting, fun, or interesting. Describe it on the lines below.
