

Lesson 117: Prepositions

Using your same sentences from lesson 116, now underline the preposition and circle the object of the preposition. Remember that both of those will be contained within the prepositional phrase.

After the news, my favorite show comes on.

I keep all of my money in my piggy bank.

I went into the bedroom to get my book.

The eagle soared over the lake with elegance.

Let's go around the corner and see Grandma.

The woodpecker hit his beak against the tree.

I put my pulled tooth under my pillow.

Please get in the car so we can leave.

Big fireworks exploded above our heads.

The boat drifted on the open sea.

Our wheels spun rapidly as we flew down the road.

The rainy skies put a damper on our town parade.

The ponies trotted around in a circle.

Could we go to the park today?
