

Lesson 155: Descriptive Writing

Pick a place everyone in your family knows and describe it. Use all five senses. Don't use names or in any way tell them the answer in the description. See if they can figure out what you described.

Now write a description of a person everyone in your family knows. Again, don't give the answer, but describe the answer.
