such join thank about hoist pay July playing

"Papa, may we have the big flag?" said James.

"What can my little boy do with such a big flag?"

"Hoist it on our tent, papa. We are playing Fourth of July."

"Is that what all this noise is about? Why not hoist your own flags?"

"Oh! They are too little."

"You might spoil my flag."

"Then we will all join to pay for it. But we will not spoil it, papa."

"Take it, then, and take the coil of rope with it."

"Oh! Thank you."

Read the consonant sound, then the short vowel sound, and then the two combined.

Word Pairs

Start on the left and sound out the words. The second pair of words rhyme with the first set. When words end with the same letters, they usually rhyme.

bad lid            had kid

mad Dan            sad man

ban sin            can pin

fan men            ran ten

bat top            cat mop

fat pet            hat wet

hot mat            got rat ten men            hot sun            pet cat

rat bit            get pot            did hop

After this point the font will change to distinguish capital "I" from lowercase "l."

AI

You learned that ee and ea both say E. Well, the rule that “when two vowels go awalking the first one does the talking” is true for other sounds too. We are first going to look at different ways to make the A sound, at different ways to make A say its name. One way is with the letters ai together.

sail	tail	rail	wail
pail	mail	nail	jail
fail	trail	train	rain
pain	gain	main	plain
pair	hair	lair	maid
paid	raid	laid	wait
paint	faint	fair	dainty

Use the pail and paint the plain train rail red.

Deliver the mail quickly to the jail in the rain.
